

Cayte Connell

Operations Specialist

Cayte Connell is an operations specialist at the Stanley Center for Peace and Security, where she supports planning and logistics for the center's events, forums, and other convenings domestically and internationally.

Before joining the Stanley Center, Connell worked in several cities around the United States—from Denver, Colorado, to Jacksonville, Florida, to Washington, DC—in fundraising and administration for a variety of arts organizations and political candidates.

Connell has a BA in theater arts (dance) from Beloit College.