

Cayte Connell

Senior Operations Specialist

Cayte Connell is a senior operations specialist at the Stanley Center for Peace and Security, where she supports planning and logistics for the center's events, forums, and other convenings domestically and internationally.

Prior to joining the Stanley Center, Connell worked as an event planner and logistics manager in the performing arts sector. She also has extensive experience as a political fundraiser.

Connell holds a BA in theater arts (dance) from Beloit College.